Four Seasons Hotel In NYC

New York Hotel Deals

The Four Seasons Hotel on East 57th between Madison and Park Avenues is certainly the most luxurious hotels in New York City which obviously also means that it's very expensive. If you're not rich then you're not likely to have the kind of cash it costs to spend the night here or at any other luxury hotel in NYC for that matter.

As of this writing the average guest review for the Four Seasons Hotel in New York City is a perfect five stars which matches the official 5 star rating that the hotel has.

Just one Saturday night at the Four Seasons this summer would cost you at least $700/room. And for their most luxurious suite you would have to shell out an astounding $5000. That is not a typo! If you want to spend $5000 on your NYC vacation in a single night, just reserve yourself a suite at Manhattan's Four Seasons Hotel!

Of course for that kind of money you will be buying yourself a top of the line place to spend your time in New York. Amenities such as a sauna, a jacuzzi, a gym, 24 hour room service, quality laundry service, high speed internet service, valet parking, and a security guard for safety are all part of the package.

No matter how nice your hotel is, the key part of a hotel in Manhattan is its location and this hotel is perfectly situated near Central Park and many other great tourist attractions such as the Sony Wonder Technology Lab, MoMA, the American Folk Art Museum, and shopping on 5th Avenue.

Personally I wouldn't waste this much cash on a hotel room unless I was insanely rich. There are lots of decent discount hotel options in New York City that also have great locations. But you should be definitely be aware that discount means something quite different in New York City than it does in other parts of the USA.
