Guaranteed luxury in Sharm el Sheikh hotels and apartments

Water sports can be enjoyed in a variety of locations, but Sharm el Sheikh is perhaps one of the best. Last minute deals to the city can provide the perfect antidote to the stress of working life and can give you experiences never to be forgotten.

People treating themselves to a Sharm el Sheikh Hotels visit will not be disappointed with what the destination has to offer. Not only providing great water sports, the city also boasts a lively nightlife and a whole host of cafes and bars. But possibly as far as Egypt Holidays go, the resort is difficult to beat!

Of course, water sports are what the city is most famous for. Situated in Egypt's prime beach location on the Red Sea, is a Mecca for divers. Ras Mohammed, a national park, is one of most well known locations for the diving, with several spots to choose from.

It is here that you will find many hidden treasures underwater, with massive reef walls measuring 800 metres teeming with amazing looking fish. If you don't wish to dive, you can still enjoy the clear waters using a simple snorkel.

Specialised snorkelling trips are available at Naamba Bay, a beach at the edge of the city boasting a two km coastline. These can be done both from land and during organised boat trips.

The centre for all water sports is Naamba Bay, which is perhaps best known for snorkelling and diving opportunities. From the beach you will be able to book the opportunity for a number of water sports including parasailing, water skiing, windsurfing and kite surfing, or you can simply relax and enjoy the sunshine! Because of the relative gentleness of the sea, it is a great base for people of all abilities including those with no experience at all.

As a break from the resort, many people like to sample life on the great river Nile and experience the pleasures of Nile cruises on some of the most impressive vessels in the world.
