Little Known Beautiful Caribbean Destinations

Since it was found by Jean Laporte in 1984, Cabarete has been the well recognized home of windsurfing and other intrepid water sports. Many world champs of surfing, kiteboarding and windsurfing have come out of Cabarete, thanks to the generous winds and the adequate beaches and the amazing Cabarete Accommodation.

If you choose your Cabarete accommodation carefully, you can take advantage of one or two advantages that may make your holiday more enjoyable. Not every hotel is offering these perks, so select with care.

Remain Constant to Your Eco Roots

If you live your life in peace with the environment around you and try to keep your carbon footprint as low as practicable you'll enjoy staying at an eco-conscious hotel that thinks the same way.

Cabarete is known for its forceful winds, so why would not the best Cabarete accommodation take advantage of those fresh winds?

The Extraordinary Hotel has done that with a natural wind AC system providing natural wind to chill every room in the hotel. Not only does this cut out the requirement for air-con, but it permits guests to experience the freshness of beach wind as they relax and curl up to sleep.

This is very relaxing and energizing, and has gotten tons of praise from travelers. It's also a good way to save the environment.

Join the "I" Crowd

Everyone wants to be a part of the "in" crowd. You know, those are the people who appear to have life all worked out and who everybody else wants to hang out with. When booking your Cabarete accommodation, make sure you are at a hotel that everyone wants to hang out at. There are hotels that are common hangout points even for visitors not booking a room at that hotel. In many cases, these are the hostels that visitors try and book first, but when they can not get rooms they just become regular faces hanging at the bar.

These hostels present casual, fun atmospheres and may even throw in a free drink when you book a room. The clothes is casual, the angles are friendly, and the atmosphere is energetic. This is the type of hotel that you like because there isn't any option but to smile and have a wonderful time.

Not all hostels in Cabarete are like this. You have got to select wisely, or you will be one of the visitors staying nearby, but spending all of your time with the "in" crowd.

Keep In Shape

Look for a hotel that has got a great gym and training facility. This is vital if you are staying more than a couple nights, because you want to remain in shape while you are away from home.

You'll get masses of exercise running round the beaches and learning the best way to windsurf, but you may also want to order a session with a pro trainer or go in on your own to stay abreast of your exercise program.

There actually is only one Cabarete hotel that is fantastically suited to those with fitness on the mind, and that is the Extreme Hotel. It has got a yoga studio and is home to the only underground half pipe in the Caribbean.

It is also home to the best fitness club in Cabarete and spinning classes are always offered. You may even get trained in mixed martial-arts if that interests you.

Each guest will find classes and hardware needed to stay fit and keep on course with fitness goals. That may be a perk you do not regularly get when away from home.

Views Right on Kite Beach

Kite Beach is obviously the best place to be in Cabarete, and if you book your Cabarete accommodation right, you will be staying in a massive room overlooking this beach.

Not everyone who visits Cabarete has the advantage of living right on this beach, but those that can swing it finish up in the guts of the action. Beautiful sea perspectives are outside the hotel windows and the break of surf is just outside the front door.

Pools for Easy going Pleasure

You won't always wish to trek it out to the beach to enjoy the sunshine, which is why it's important to discover a hotel that offers one pool. Play your cards right and you'll book with a hotel that offers an inside and outside pool, excellent for a dip at any time of the day all year round.

It is not difficult to find Cabarete accommodation with all of these advantages. Don't just book for price. Book for simplicity, fun, and the holiday of a whole life.
